This sigil is close to my heart. All of the magick I reveal to you began with a single, simple request I made to Och. The floodgates of inspiration opened up to me after that. Och can do the same for you in your life no matter where you are or what you desire.

The sun shines equally upon all and never asks for anything in return. This is Och's nature. Ask and believing that you have it, your wishes shall be manifested to you. Allow your mind to be illuminated with the newness of Life available to us through Och's eternal Light. May the harmony of Tipereth be upon you, in you, and through you.

Powers of Och (Pronounced: OAK)

- Bring confidence
- Become charming and charismatic to win admiration and respect from others
- To achieve your ambitions
- Gain a stable sense of identity and become comfortable in who you are.
- To bring a state of enlightened inspiration where new ideas flow freely
- To attain positions of authority
- Bring about a change in circumstances leading to the attraction of great wealth
- Wisdom to make wise decisions
- Bring great harmony to any situation
- Manifestation of auspiciousness and overall good luck
- For help waking up and getting started with your day. Motivation and energy.

Method:

Simply gaze at the sigil and chant Och's name until you feel his presence then make your request. You can perform this as often as you like. Remain open to synchronicity, signs, and dreams as Och shapes the fabric of reality to bring your desires into sparkling manifestation.
